Section 4.2 Indemnification

Semantic analysis identifies critical phrasing issues.

RISK SCORE

8.5/10

High Risk

ORIGINAL CONTRACT WORDING

The Provider shall indemnify and hold harmless the Client from and against any and all claims, damages, liabilities, and expenses, including reasonable legal fees, arising out of any third-party claim relating to the Provider's performance under this Agreement, without limitation of liability.

Suggested Rewrite

Intelligence Insight

The current wording provides "unlimited liability" for the Provider, which is commercially high-risk. It lacks a cap on indemnification and doesn't exclude indirect or consequential damages.

Section 12.1 Termination

Semantic analysis identifies critical phrasing issues.

RISK SCORE

5.2/10

Medium Risk

ORIGINAL CONTRACT WORDING

Either party may terminate this agreement for convenience upon 15 days written notice to the other party.

AI Explanation

Suggested Rewrite

Intelligence Insight

A 15-day notice period for convenience is unusually short for enterprise software contracts, potentially leading to operational instability.

Section 8.5 Data Privacy

Semantic analysis identifies critical phrasing issues.

RISK SCORE

2.1/10

Low Risk

ORIGINAL CONTRACT WORDING

Provider agrees to maintain all Personal Data in accordance with applicable GDPR regulations and the Data Processing Addendum attached hereto.

Intelligence Insight

Clause is standard and aligns with industry best practices for GDPR compliance.

Section 15.3 Force Majeure

Semantic analysis identifies critical phrasing issues.

RISK SCORE

4.8/10

Medium Risk

ORIGINAL CONTRACT WORDING

Neither party shall be liable for failure to perform its obligations if such failure is as a result of Acts of God (including fire, flood, earthquake, storm, hurricane or other natural disaster), war, invasion, act of foreign enemies, hostilities (regardless of whether war is declared), civil war, rebellion,
